

2026 Major & Minor Career Pathway

A professional development workshop was held on January 27, 2026, and was specifically designed to bridge the gap between academic theory and the modern job market for liberal arts students. The workshop was an empowering session intended to show students how to turn their intellectual passions into a viable, high-impact career path.