

3+3

3 Years @ Spelman College +
3 Years @ UC Law San Francisco

The Spelman College and UC Law San Francisco accelerated 3+3 program permits Spelman students who meet the 3+3 admission requirements to enter UC Law San Francisco after three years of undergraduate education.

Guaranteed Admission

For students who meet the UC Law San Francisco 25th percentile GPA and LSAT/GRE score from the prior admissions year

Guaranteed Scholarship

Minimum of $15,000 per year for 3 years of full-time studies in good standing at UC Law San Francisco

California Scholars

Students who graduated from a California high school may also be eligible for our full-tuition scholarship California Scholars Program

Spelman undergraduate advisors will identify, mentor, and support students in their admission request. Staff at both Spelman and UC Law San Francisco are available to counsel students.

Years 1-3 (Spelman Tuition Rate)

- Declare interest in 3+3 during Year 1
- Work with Spelman Pre-Law Advisor on course selection
- Complete 75% of undergraduate coursework
- Meet Spelman's 3+3 requirement
- Sit for the LSAT or GRE (by Fall of Year 3)
- Apply to UC Law SF by March 1 of Year 3

Year 4 (UC Law SF Tuition Rate)

- Complete 31 credits of law coursework (28 credits will count towards both BA/BS and JD)
- BA/BS awarded from Spelman College upon successful completion of Year 4

Years 5-6 (UC Law SF Tuition Rate)

- Complete 55 credits of law coursework
- JD awarded by UC Hastings Law upon successful completion of Year 6

Admission Information

- ☐ Students interested in this program should declare interest in their first year.
- ☐ Spelman College will advise students interested in the 3+3 option to ensure students keep course selection on track to meet requirements.
- ☐ Spelman students are invited to apply to UC Law San Francisco no later than March 1 of their third year.

Standardized Test & Requirements

- ☐ Complete all Spelman 3+3 requirements before enrolling at UC Law San Francisco.
- ☐ Be in good academic standing and good social standing at Spelman.
- ☐ Earn an undergraduate cumulative GPA (as calculated by LSAC) that meets or exceeds UC Law San Francisco's 25th percentile from the previous enrollment year.
- ☐ Take either the LSAT or GRE no later than December of the third year at Spelman and achieve a minimum score that meets or exceeds UC Law San Francisco's 25th percentile from the previous enrollment year.

3+3

Contact Information

Spelman College

Dr. Marilyn Davis
Associate Professor & Pre-Law Advisor
mdavis1@spelman.edu

UC Law San Francisco

Henry Tsai
Director of Admissions, Outreach & Pipeline Initiatives
tsaihenry@uclawsf.edu

Tuition & Scholarship Information

- ☐ 3+3 students pay the standard Spelman College tuition rate in years one to three.
- ☐ 3+3 students are considered first-year law students once they enroll at UC Law San Francisco and pay UC Law San Francisco tuition rate and fees.
- ☐ Beginning in year four, students are no longer eligible for undergraduate federal, state, or Spelman institutional financial aid.
- ☐ 3+3 students receive a UC Law San Francisco merit scholarship of at least $15,000 annually for each of their three years of law school as long as they maintain full-time student status and remain in good academic standing (GPA 2.5 and above).
- ☐ Beginning in year four, students are eligible for federal loans for professional school students.
- ☐ Spelman students who graduated from a California high school may also be eligible for the full-tuition + $20,000 living stipend UC Law San Francisco California Scholars Program.