- To be informed of the underlying facts and circumstances giving rise to a formal complaint/investigation
- To discuss the complaint as necessary for the development of testimony or the identification of appropriate witnesses or other evidence;
- To request support measures e.g., no contact orders, changes in work, academic. or living arrangements;
- To seek assistance from campus administrators in obtaining protective orders and information about how the college can enforce such orders;
- To be informed of and have access to campus and community resources for academic, medical, counseling, visa, financial, and other advisory services;
- To be treated with respect and care during this process;
- To have an advisor present throughout the campus resolution meetings, investigations, and hearings;
- To be fully informed of the nature, rules and procedures of the campus resolution process;
- To participate in a hearing on the complaint, including timely notice of the hearing date, adequate time for preparation, and access to materials used in the campus resolution proceedings;
- To written notice of the outcome and sanction of the hearing and appeal procedures, if applicable;
- To be protected from retaliatory harassment;
- To have the campus complaint investigated and adjudicated without bias.

RESOLUTION PROCESS

Please visit

https://www.spelman.edu/titleix/policies-and procedures for detailed information on Spelman College policies and grievance procedures when investigating and resolving complaints of gender-based misconduct.

NO CONTACT ORDERS

Spelman College may issue a no-contact order to any individual involved in an alleged violation of the college policy. In most cases, no-contact orders are reciprocal, meaning the restrictions apply equally to all individuals involved. In some cases, a no-contact order may have additional restrictions for one or more individuals

Preserve Evidence

If a complaint has been filed, consider preserving evidence. Examples of evidence may include; a list of witnesses with contact information, text messages, call history, social media posts, and pictures of injuries. This is not an exhaustive list, however, it will be helpful throughout the process. More information regarding Spelman College's Complaint Resolution Process, please visit our website:
