WHAT SPELMAN LOOKS LIKE
Sisterhood
Sisterhood is built into Spelman's DNA, and our student body reflects and honors the true diversity of Black women's identities and experiences. Our global alumnae network is ready and waiting to connect with you.

Academic Excellence
Spelman is the #1 HBCU in the country and the top producer of Black women who go on to get PhDs in STEM. Our custom textbooks, flipped classrooms, and cutting-edge curriculum will prepare you for any career path you choose.

Opportunity
At Spelman, you'll be encouraged to lead, get involved through service learning and civic engagement, and forge your own path. 600+ employers and graduate schools visit Spelman every year looking for the best and brightest. 95% of our graduates get jobs or go to graduate school within 6 months of graduation.

Purpose
Spelman changes the world. Join a global network of your sisters in becoming activists, thought leaders, educators, and changemakers.

WELCOME TO SPelman COLLEGE
At Spelman, we make history. Are you ready to join us?

Spelman College was founded in 1881—and since then, we’ve been on a mission to educate and empower women of African descent. Here, you can get an educational experience that is uniquely designed by and for Black women. You’ll leave with the tools you need to succeed professionally and make an impact in the world.
