MISSION: Spelman College, a historically Black college and a global leader in the education of women of African descent, is dedicated to academic excellence in the liberal arts and sciences and the intellectual, creative, ethical, and leadership development of its students. Through diverse learning modalities, Spelman empowers the whole person to engage the many cultures of the world and inspires a commitment to positive social change.

RESEARCH: Spelman students in every major have opportunities to work with faculty on high-level research. Many students co-author their research findings with faculty and present at academic conferences.

ADMISSIONS: Spelman is a highly competitive and selective school—we don’t just consider academic credentials. When considering future Spelmanites, we also look at leadership, extracurricular activities, community service, employment, personal interests, and other abilities. Spelman admits qualified young women without regard to race, color, religion, creed, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender assignment at birth, marital or veteran status, or any other legally protected status.

ACCREDITATION: Spelman College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges, and is a proud member of the Atlanta University Center Consortium.
