Major in Spanish
Nine courses above 202 (9x4 credits)  9
Service Learning while abroad or at Spelman  2
Capstone Project/Thesis Portfolio  2

Core Required Courses (all 3)
SFLS 303  Conversation
SFLS 306  Advanced Grammar and Composition
SFLS 308  Intro to Literary and Cultural Studies

Major Required Courses (all 4)
SFLS 351 Intellectual Traditions of Women
SFLS 352 National and Transnational Identities
SFLS 353 Linguistics, Professional, Cultural, and Artistic Expressions
SFLS 354 Dynamic Relations of Political Power

Major Required Courses (choose 2)
SFLS 451, 452, 453, 454

Other Required Credits
SFLS 300 and 301 – Service Learning Abroad or at Spelman (1 credit each summer abroad or service learning associated with a course)

SFLS 440 and 441 – Capstone (1 credit each semester of the Senior year)

COURSES OFFERED ABROAD FOR MAJORS
First summer abroad: 303 or 306 (+1 credit for service learning)
Second summer abroad: 351, 352, 353, 354 (+1 credit for service learning)
Semester abroad: 2 courses at 350’s or 450’s level (+2 credits for service learning, 10 credits total for one semester)
[Core Required Courses 303, 306, 308 must be taken at Spelman]

THEMATIC AREAS
SFLS 351/451 Intellectual Traditions of Women: Representation, Voices, Silence, Collective Memory, Oral Traditions, Femininities, and Queer Identities
SFLS 353/453 Linguistics, Professional, Cultural, and Artistic Expressions: Visual Arts, Film, Music, Museum, Cartography, News, Mass Media, and Social Media
SFLS 354/454 Dynamic Relations of Political Power: Imperialism, Dictatorships, (Neo)Colonialism, Democracies, and Civic Society (Social Movements, NGOs)

* SFLS 319: These profession-oriented classes focus on expanding the students' Spanish skills in fields including Health Sciences, Law, Business, Journalism, etc. For minor requirements, this course counts as 353 according to the areas of specialization mentioned above. (the profession of focus might change year to year)