

Suneye Rae Holmes

suneyerae@gmail.com

---

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Doctorate of Philosophy in Economics, Georgia Institute of Technology (in progress)

Atlanta, GA

2025

Recipient of graduate house fellowship for part-time students; concentrating in Health Economics.

Master of Arts (Applied Economics), The Johns Hopkins University,

Baltimore, MD

2008

Self-selected for independent seminar in Health Economics and Microeconometrics during the final semester. Produced a cost-benefit case study on the prevalence and prevention of HIV transmission among American Black and Latino Youth, "The Economics of Implementing HIV Prevention Interventions Among High-Risk Youth in the United States."

Bachelor of Arts (Economics), Spelman College, cum laude distinction

Atlanta, GA

2004

Researched "What Factors Affect Poverty Rates in Sub-Saharan Africa? 1996-2001" for the senior thesis. Studied public finance, urban economics and intermediate macroeconomics at Bryn Mawr College during a domestic exchange visit, Fall 2002. Served in the college's Glee Club and as a chapel assistant and ambassador on campus, internationally and on college media publications. Interned on Wall St during the summers. Minored in Music Theory.

FELLOWSHIPS & SCHOLARSHIPS

J. Vernon O'Neil House Fellowship, Georgia Tech

2020-2021

LSU Graduate Assistantship

2015-2016

Rice University Provost Fellowship

2014

University of Texas at Dallas John Forrest Kain Fellowship Recipient

2009

Spelman College Full Tuition Award

2000 - 2004

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Instructor of Economics, Spelman College, Atlanta, GA

2018-present

- Principles of Macroeconomics; Mathematical Economics; Health Economics; Econometrics lab using STATA; Statistics lab using STATA
- Coordinates department curricula and pedagogy of statistical programming along with the chair and econometrics faculty.
- Committee member on the Spelman Sloan Grant in Economics
- Instructor for the Sloan Summer Bridge Program for incoming first-year students (2020 and 2021) and the Matrix Algebra course (2021)
- Advisor for first-year economics students
- Advisor for AUC Speaks public speaking group

Assistant Professor of Economics, Weatherford College, Weatherford, TX

2010-present

- Principles of Macroeconomics & Microeconomics (16 week terms and 3 week terms)
- Course load includes dual-credit and remote online populations using 2-way video equipment in a studio environment.
- Assimilates special topics on health, natural resources, policy and public choice in addition to mandated content, via lecture, debates, peer discussions and peer reviews.

Instructor of Economics, Tarrant County College District, Northwest Campus, Fort Worth, TX

2010-2016

- Principles of Macroeconomics, Principles of Microeconomics, Business Ethics (16/8/4 and 2 week terms)

- Created the Economic Debate Series as a holistic, data-driven assessment of economic fluency and social responsibility

Graduate Research Assistant, Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, LA 2015-2016
- Introduction to Econometrics (ECON 4630) and Econometric Methods (ECON 4631)

Graduate Teaching Assistant, Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, LA 2015-2016
- Intermediate Microeconomic Theory (ECON 4720)

Teaching Assistant, American Economic Association Summer Program
The University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM 2013-2014
- Math Methods for Economists. Additionally, assisted student research projects with statistical software packages experience. Led seminars on topics in history, poverty, health and graduate school preparation

Graduate Teaching Assistant, The University of Texas at Dallas, Richardson, TX 2009
- Principles of Microeconomics

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Program Coordinator, American Economic Association Summer Program
The University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM 2015

Survey Statistician, U.S. Census Bureau, Washington, D.C 2005 - 2009

Mortgage Trading Analyst, Credit Suisse First Boston, New York, NY 2004 - 2005

Intern, Credit Suisse First Boston, New York, NY 2003

Intern, Morgan Stanley, New York, NY 2002

Intern, Credit Suisse First Boston, New York, NY 2001

PRESENTATIONS

- Economic History, Health economics, Poverty and Graduate School preparation seminars for the AEASP in Economics, The University of New Mexico 2013, 2014 and 2015
- CV writing workshop for the AEASP in Economics, The University of New Mexico 2013, 2014 and 2015
- Kent Miller & Quinton Reeves Presenter<sup>1</sup>, Weatherford College, The Border Economy 2017
- Parker County NAACP branch 6321 MLK Day Guest Speaker, Weatherford, TX 2018
- Morehouse School of Medicine Prevention Research Center FAMSTRONG2020 presenter 2020

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Economic History; Health economics; Environmental economics, Microeconometrics

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Toastmaster's International, Something to Talk About Club, District 25 2016 - present
Meals on Wheels volunteer, Mineral Wells, Texas 2017 - present
Rising Scholars Professional Tutor, Dallas/Weatherford/San Antonio, Texas 2010 - 2011
Higher Achievement Mentor, Washington, D.C 2005 - 2006
Junior Achievement Mentor, Atlanta, Georgia 2001 - 2003

<sup>1</sup> <https://youtu.be/1K29z56sKpl>

CERTIFICATIONS / LICENSES

Series 3, Series 7 and Series 63 National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) licensure 2004