

DIS-Spelman Copenhagen

Copenhagen, Denmark Highlights

- Discover how Copenhagen plans to be the world's first carbon-neutral capital by 2025
- Learn about why Danes are named "the happiest people in the world" at the national museet
- Explore the Danish Refugee Council's Diaspora Programme and learn about the humanitarian assistance of refugees in Copenhagen
- Tour the Little Mermaid statue
- Rent a bike and enjoy the beautiful scenery at Nyhavn!

★ May 17- June 2,
2020

★ Program Fee:
$1600

★ Airfare
Estimate: $1200

★ Program fee
includes the cost of tuition, cultural activities, lodging, $200 food stipend &
in country ground
transportation

DIS-Spelman Course

Copenhagen

3 Credit Hour General Elective Course

Cross Cultural Communication

In this class on cross-cultural communication, we will draw on theory and methodology from fields as diverse as communication, journalism, anthropology, history, sociology, and cultural studies to examine cultural and related differences in verbal and non-verbal communication. We will investigate how misunderstandings and conflicts are created and can be resolved.