AUGUSTA UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF NURSING
Clinical Nurse Leader Program

A Clinical Nurse Leader (CNL) is a Master's educated nurse who is prepared to take on a role of leadership in any healthcare setting. Augusta University's College of Nursing offers two pathways to the Master of Science in Nursing degree with a concentration in Clinical Nurse Leader. The first pathway is an innovative, accelerated graduate program for individuals with non-nursing bachelor's degrees. The second pathway is a bridge program to the Master of Science in Nursing degree for individuals who currently hold a Bachelor's degree in Nursing.
