Mission Statement

The mission of the Spelman College Parents and Family Association (SCPFA) is to promote a dynamic relationship between the College and family members in support of the educational experience of our daughters.
Purpose of the SCPFA

- Increase rewarding opportunities for the College and its students by networking and promoting positive parent and family involvement.
- Enlighten parents of newsworthy College events and activities.
- Share and gather valuable information on topics that specifically interest Spelman parents and family members.
- Contribute to the economic advancement of the College through increased parental visibility and financially supporting the Parents Campaign.
