Top Reasons to study music in Vienna

LOCATION
Vienna is commonly called the Fine Arts capital of Europe. Webster’s campus in Vienna has been open since the 1980s. When this happened, Webster faculty knew that Vienna was a natural place for study because of its history as a center of European culture. Austria has given the world many famous classical music composers, including Haydn, Mozart, Schubert, Liszt, J. Strauss, Mahler, and Bruckner to name a few.

Webster Vienna Private University is located in the beautiful Palais Wenkheim conveniently located in Vienna’s second district (Praterstrasse 23), just a few steps away from the city center. Built in 1826, the neoclassical was completely renovated and transformed into a modern site for academic and operational excellence in 2014.

CULTURE
Austrian culture is rich with history and the city of Vienna has a distinct flair. As of late 2012, 19 Austrians had been awarded a Nobel Prize, including seven in Physiology or Medicine, four in Chemistry and three in Physics. This is one of the highest number of Nobel laureates per capita.

ARCHITECTURE AND NATURE
Since Vienna’s beautiful landmarks date back to different centuries, you can find various architectural styles around the city. From the Gothic St. Stephen’s Cathedral to the Baroque Schönbrunn Palace, the architecture in Vienna is a feast for the eyes. Step just outside of the city to experience the Austrian Alps which cover 62% of the country; or visit Krimml Falls (Krimmler Wasserfälle) and see Europe’s tallest waterfalls that reach a height of 380 meters.

FOOD
Wiener Schnitzel, Knödel, Tafelspitz, Käsespätzle and Potato Gulasch are delicious and savory foods served across the country. Try a Viennese coffee, dressed up with whipped cream and chocolate shavings, alongside a slice of the famous sachertorte or chocolate cake with apricot jam and dark chocolate icing.
Wilkommen to Vienna! Take one course with Dr. Meyers and choose another from the many exciting offerings at Webster Vienna.
